

Who Stays At Colorado Bed & Barn?

Horses?

Outside of family Lorrie's passion is horses, Colorado Bed & Barn is perfect for horse travelers who are on the road from point to point, or visiting as a destination.

Lorrie is an avid student of natural horsemanship, including Parelli Natural Horsemanship. So there are many fun obstacles to play with, in fact we are the perfect distance for people driving to & from the Parelli International Study Center (ISC) in Pagosa Springs, Colorado. She has attended several classes at the ISC, so she has a wealth of information about the Parelli ISC experience for newcomers to the Pagosa Springs ranch.

Lorrie also loves meeting all types horse people and learning about what they are doing with their horses.

But do you need a horse to stay at Colorado Bed & Barn?

Absolutely Not! - Divide Colorado is known as the "Center Of The Known Universe!" and the options for fun and entertainment are extensive.

Our location is perfect for:

- dirt bikers - world-famous 717 is less than a mile away.
- motorcyclists - we are surrounded by miles and miles of awesome mountain roads and know the best places to go.
- mountain bikers - the trails are endless, some are challenging, and some are relaxing.
- rodeo professionals/reiners/ropers, etc - this is the perfect place to chill out and let your horse stretch his legs and unwind between events.
- hunters - we are in unit 511 and near unit 59 of the forest system.
- hikers - this area offers everything from casual hikes to topping 14'ers.
- fishing/anglers - we are close to world-class fly fishing streams and several lakes & reservoirs and we can introduce you to some professional fly-fishing guides.
- vacationers - there are a "ba-zillion" places to go, sites to see, shops to hit, areas to explore and events to attend.
